

Over half of people aged 65+ believe they have been targeted by fraudsters

One in 12 responded to the scam

Source: Age Concern

Households which earn £50,000 stand 9.1% of being scammed

Cost the country £193 billion last year

Source: Experian

100,000

number of people found on a suckers list in East Sussex

Source: East Sussex County Council

The large majority of victims of fraud had been a victim only once (84%), although repeat victimisation (within the same 12 month crime reference period) was more common among victims of bank and credit account fraud (14%) than other types of fraud.

There were an estimated

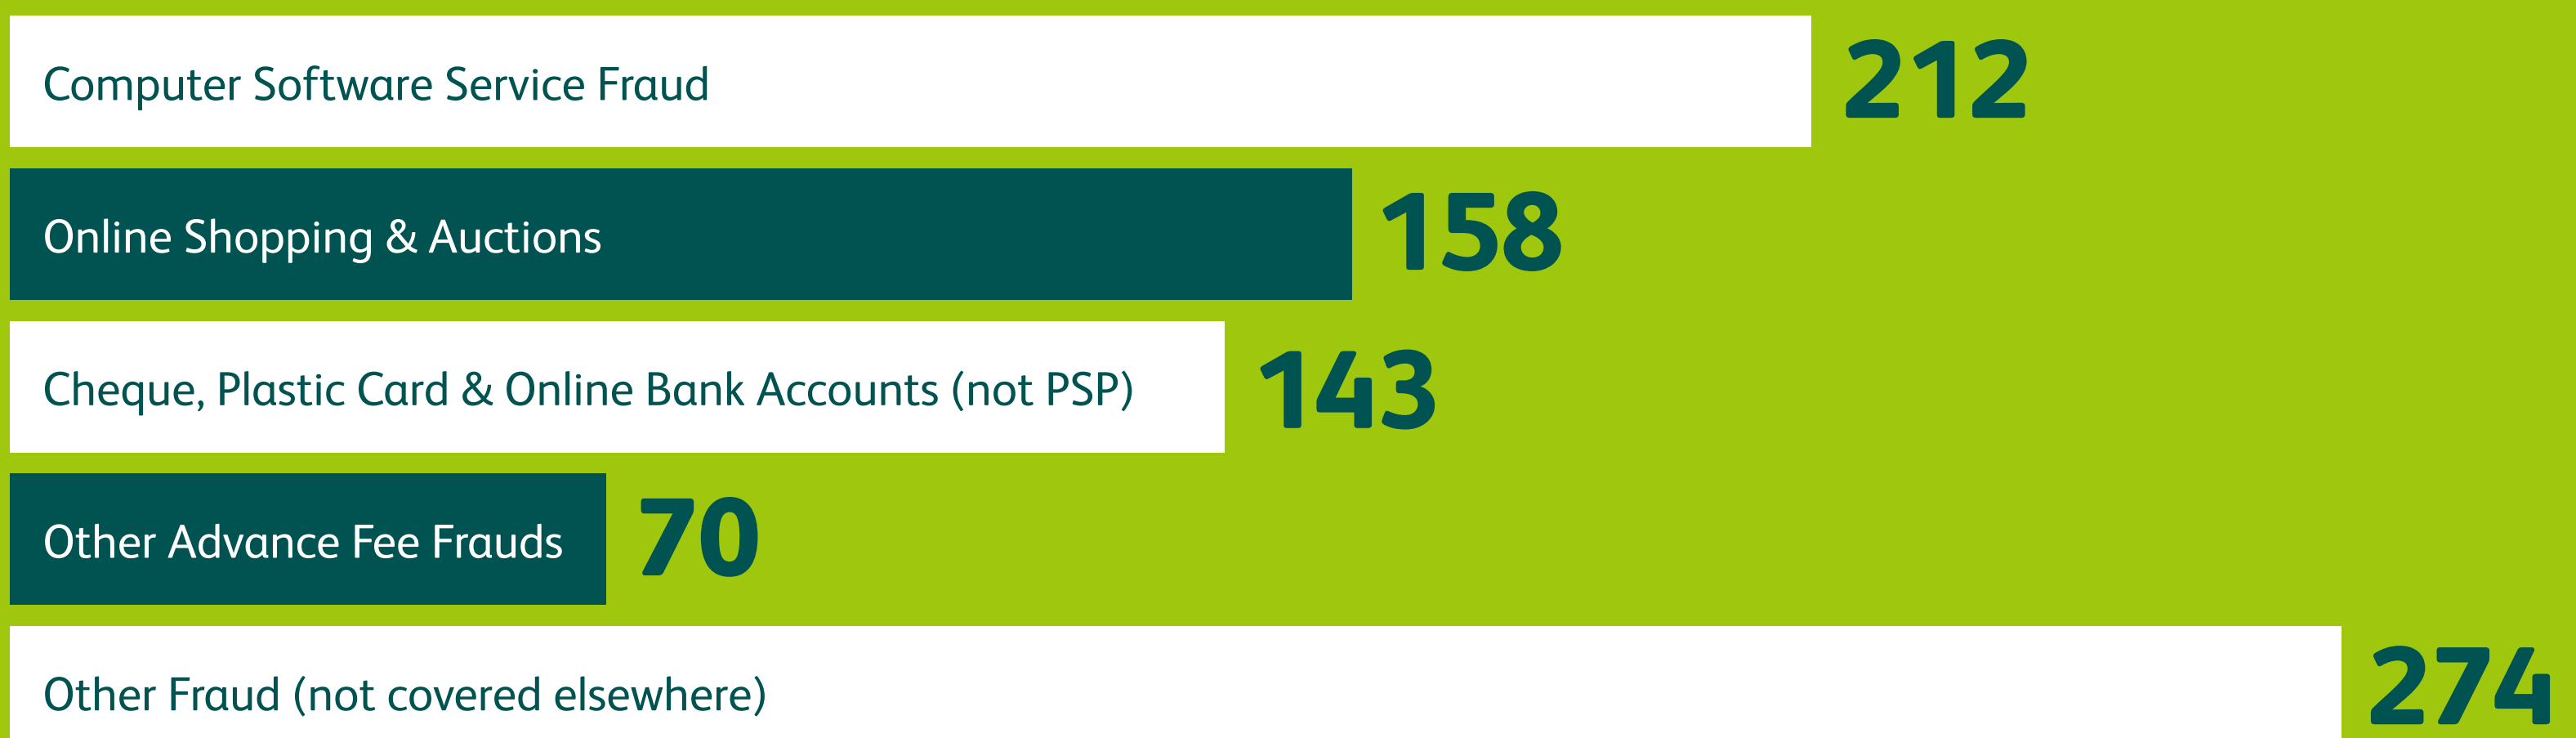

3.6 million cases

of fraud and two million computer misuse offences in a year, according to an official survey.

Source: National Crime Survey

Cases of fraud in East Sussex last year

Source: Actionfraud.police.uk

We're here to help, call 01323 644422 or email info@welbeing.org.uk